

What's Up with Deaf Education in Utah and USA?

Where: Sanderson Center, 5709 S. 1500 W., Taylorsville

When: January 13, 2006 (Friday), 9 am—5 pm

Admission: FREE (due to generous sponsors)

Presenter: Dr. Joseph J. Innes, Director of Gallaudet Leadership Institute

Why: Learn about the new wave of Deaf Education, including Language Planning to develop reading and writing skills and what educators are doing to provide an appropriate education for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Children

Who should come: Everyone! Parents of Deaf & Hard of Hearing children, Educators of Deaf & Hard of Hearing Children, Deaf & Hard of Hearing individuals, Friends, and all walks of life

Sponsors (4): Gallaudet University ~ Sprint ~ Utah Association for the Deaf ~ Sanderson Community Center of the Deaf & Hard of Hearing

FREE Lunch: for first 45 people who register with Kristi Mortensen. A box lunch will cost $10 but you must RSVP by January 6, 2006.

Lunch Entertainment: “The Twin Brothers”. One is deaf and one is hearing. They will provide a funny synopsis of their childhood and growing up.

Interpreters will be provided.

Registration RSVP:

Kristi Mortensen at kristim@uad.org

Ron Nelson at ronn@uad.org

More information on the bill and other states who have passed the bill is available online at www.uad.org/dhhcbr

The UAD Board has a meeting on January 14 at 10 a.m. at the Sanderson Center. Dr. Jay Innes will explain Deaf Education changes across America, what vital concerns need to be addressed and his exciting FREE workshops at Gallaudet University (expenses covered by GLI Grants), that will benefit administrators, teachers, leaders, and others.

