Vol. 3 No. 3

For and about the deaf in Utah

August 1979

August Happenings

- Sat, 4th -- The 3rd annual bowlers' outing, originally scheduled for Como Springs, is now to be held at Rockport Dam campground -- for those coming from the SLC area, take the I-80S through Parley's Canyon until reaching Wanship. Those from the Ogden area take the I-80 by way of Weber Canyon and turn south at I-80S. Campers are welcome to stay from Thursday to Sunday for an enjoyable long weekend.
- Thu-Fri, 16th-17th -- The Utah Board of Education will meet on both days at their headquarters, UBE Building, 250 E. 5th S., SLC.
- Fri-Sat, 17th-18th -- Valley Ward for the Deaf is hosting the Zone Conference for the Deaf; see enclosed flyer for information.
- Sun, 19th -- The UAD Board of Directors will meet at 4:00 pm at the Park West picnic area, 5600 S. Park West in SLC.
- Thu, 23rd -- GSACD officers will be the chefs at the hamburger fry, starting 6:00 pm at Riverdale Park.
- Thu, 30th -- Utah Sportsman's Club of the Deaf will have a movie -- contact Jerry Roach.

Note: The Governor's Advisory Council will not meet in August.

PLAN AHEAD: The third annual volleyball tournament, sponsored by the St. Mary Magdalene Club of the Deaf, will be held on Saturday, September 8 at the USD gym in Ogden. Games begin at 8:00 am and continue to 8:00 pm (times are tentative, depending on entries). Fast foods and beverages will be on sale. Organizations will be contacted about entering teams. Fred Bass is the chairman for this big sporting event.

PLAN AHEAD: Another big sporting event coming up on September 29 is the local bowling tournament, to be held at Bonwood Lanes, 2500 S. Main in SLC. Deaf bowlers who hold ABC or WIBC cards are eligible to enter as a team, double or single -- entry fee for any three is $5.00. Prize money will be returned 100%. A social will be held that evening. For more information, Norman Williams is the person to contact.

FORUM X POSTPONED: The workshop, "Human Sexuality and the Deaf Person", has been postponed to a date in 1980. After the NAD Board of Directors meet sometime this fall, an exact date will be announced.

EVENTS COMING UP THIS FALL: Two events, the Law Seminar on September 22 and the Women's Conference on October 6, will have more information in the September issue of the Bulletin. The speakers have been tentatively scheduled but because of summer vacations cannot yet be confirmed. Mark your calendars!

MISS DEAF UTAH PAGEANT: Plans are shaping up well for this gala event on November 10. Application forms have been sent out to eligible women between the ages of 18 and 28; if you know of someone who is eligible but has not received an application, encourage her to contact Adele Sigoda.

TTY Jottings

Here are new additions or changes to the 1979 TTY Directory:

Wendy Colebrook	943-4199	SLC
Rodger Wolfe	967-3457	West Jordan
Rob Smith	377-5415	Provo
George/Sophia Wilding	773-4775	Roy
Bonnie Pertl	486-6647	SLC
Information Center	487-4716	SLC
South Valley Mfg.	254-2002	Riverton
Daniel/Lydia Garcia	566-0973	West Jordan
Senior Citizens (Northwest Center)	322-2359	SLC

Delete Ellen Kowal from Provo listing.

Information Center has moved to a new location, so they have a new phone number too. If you call on their old phone number, Mountain Bell will automatically switch your call to the new number, for a limited time.

Help is needed from every one of you. Jerry Westberg, who is the TTY specialist for the MHD TTY project, needs names of hearing impaired multiply handicapped persons who do not now have a TTY but who would benefit from the use of one. Give the names you have to Jerry and he will go out to each prospective TTY user to explain the program to them. The project provides free TTY and phone couplers on a trial basis to these people.

News of Note

The Broadcaster is the newest newspaper for the deaf, published by the National Association of the Deaf for readers across the U.S. and Canada, and intended as a more appealing medium for the average deaf person. Contact your local deaf organization for a copy; if you are interested, the subscription rates are $4.00 yearly for NAD members and $6.00 yearly for non-NAD members (effective August 1). Incidentally, NAD is holding a "Name the Paper" contest to find a new name for the newspaper. See The Broadcaster for contest rules; deadline for entries is August 31.

The Utah Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf announced the election of its officers recently. They are: Janice Hill, president; Donna Melander, 1st vice president; Gloria Baker, 2nd vice president; Ann Thatcher, secretary; Mary Chamberlain, treasurer; Lucy Greenwood, 2 year board member; and Gene Stewart, Beth Ann Campbell, Lloyd Perkins, 2, 4, and 6 year trustees, respectively.

Charles Fowler, whose surname was Farmer until October 28, 1977 when he had it changed to Fowler, is now living in San Francisco.

Honors

At the Frat banquet in Toronto, Canada, George Laramie accepted a plaque for his daughter, Celia May Baldwin, who was named an outstanding Frat Agent for the western region. She had sold the most insurance and signed up the most new members in that area.

Accident

Bessie Kidman, who was on her way home to Logan from Price where she had visited her family after the UAD convention, had her Thunderbird totalled in an accident near Spanish Fork on June 27. She had a whiplash injury when a truck hit her car, but was otherwise okay, and now has a 1978 Mercury Cougar XR7 to get her around.
