

uad bulletin

Vol. 3 No. 11

For and about the deaf in Utah

April 1980

April Happenings

- Tue 8th -- The Ogden chapter of International Association of Parents of the Deaf is sponsoring the first appearance in Utah of The Happy Handfuls, a children's theatre group from California which uses sign language. It will be held at 1:10 pm in the USD gym in Ogden; the public is welcome.
- Thu-Fri 10th-11th -- The Utah Board of Education will meet on both days at the Sevier Valley Area Vocational Center.
- Fri 11th -- Members of the Salt Lake Frats will meet at 6:45 pm at the Northwest Multipurpose Center, 1300 W. 300 N., SLC; afterwards, the public is welcome to watch "Flight of the Phoenix", a captioned film, beginning about 8:00 pm.
- Sat 12th -- Originally set for the 19th on the UO Calendar, the GSACD will have its Outing Fun on the 12th -- see flyer.
- Tue 15th -- Members of the Governor's Advisory Council will tour extension classes in the Salt Lake Valley. An hour long meeting will start at 3:00 pm in one of the schools to be visited.
- Tue 15th -- The UAD Board of Directors will meet at 6:30 pm at the State Office of Education, 250 E. 5th S., SLC.
- Thu 17th -- UACD will have its general meeting and election starting at 7:00 pm at the Northwest Multipurpose Center in SLC. Refreshments will be served. Contact Norman Williams, 566-0138 or 533-6072 (TTY, SLC) for information.
- Thu-Fri 17th-18th -- The Salt Lake chapter of IAPD is sponsoring two appearances of the Theatre of Silence from Montana State University. On Thursday at 7:30 pm it will be at Meadow Brook Elementary, 695 N. 200 W., Bountiful (off the 4th North freeway exit). On Friday at 7:30 pm it will be at Riverview Junior High School, 5750 S. 700 W., Murray. Contact Robert or Marian Hunt for more information.
- Fri 18th -- Ogden Branch will host a Hawaiian buffet, starting 6:00 pm as a welcome to spring. A captioned film, "Man on a Swing" will be shown afterwards. The Branch is at 740 21st, Ogden.
- Fri 25th -- Open to the public, the Utah Gallaudet College Alumni Association will host its annual banquet at an Ogden location to be announced later. Guest speaker will be Frank Turk, executive director of Junior NAD from Washington, DC. College alumni will receive a flyer in the mail. For more information, contact Jerry or Nancy Taylor, 479-7498 (TTY, Ogden).
- Sat 26th -- UACD bowlers will have their banquet that evening, but because of space limitations, it is limited to bowlers and their spouses or partners. Contact George or Carola Gavros for more information.

Holiday Inn, continued

The service is the first of its kind to be introduced by a major hotel chain. Holiday Inns is the largest non-governmental organization to provide this special service for the deaf.

The toll free number established for this service is 800-238-5544 -- those calling in Memphis, 794-4411.

Obituaries

- February 19 -- Ruby Birch Hall, mother of Nola Hall, Ogden, passed away. Funeral services and burial took place in Ogden.
- March 16 -- Philip Saunders of SLC, 21 year old brother of Judy Saunders, a junior at Gallaudet College in Washington, DC. Philip was fatally injured in an automobile accident.

Wedding Bells

- March 14 -- Vickie Westberg to Gregg Townsend in rites performed at the Butler 2nd Ward, SLC. The newlyweds were honored at a reception afterwards.
- March 15 -- Gayle Zimmer to Manuel Martinez, wedded in Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Roy. Gayle and Manuel greeted guests afterwards at a reception in the church hall.

Rattles 'n' Powder

- February 14 -- Amber, daughter of Melody & Mark Williams, and a granddaughter of Carol & Steve Masich, SLC.
- February 23 -- Shelly Annette, daughter of Steve & Doris Coombs, Roy.
- February 26 -- Marcus Victor, son of Marvin & Melissa Hanson, SLC
- March 17 -- a girl, born to Teddy & Elaine Lopez, Ogden.

Hospital Rounds

- February 22 -- Elsie Hertell was admitted to Lakeview Hospital in Bountiful for debrading of a wound on her left leg.
- February 25 -- Billie Merrill stayed at Lakeview Hospital for several days after surgery.
- March 4 -- Heather Cornell underwent surgery at Cottonwood Hospital in Salt Lake City.
- March 11 -- Greg Stewart, 17 year old son of Beth Ann Campbell, SLC, was badly hurt when his motorcycle went out of control. He suffered a concussion, a broken right leg and right arm, and was in a coma for three days.

Mission Calling

Richard Martin of Jerome, ID has been called to the California Ventura LDS mission. He is a graduate of ISD.

Wheels, Wheels

Nellie Sausedo, 1979 Dodge Diplomat, gray with maroon top

For Sale

Frank Burgess wants to sell his 1979 Honda ATC 110 (red), a 3 wheel off-road vehicle, only a few months old. He wants $1,000 for it. Call 782-7834 (voice, Ogden) or see him at 575 N. Liberty, Ogden.
-paid advertisement-

Request

An unusual request has come from Beth Ann Campbell. She needs toys -- books, dolls, small cars, blocks, and the like (no crayons) for the toy box she keeps at her office to keep little children busy while counseling clients. If you are thinking of discarding toys still in good condition, call her at 533-5997 (voice or TTY, SLC) or drop in at her office, 250 E. 5th S., SLC.

TTY Jottings

As soon as the present supply of TTY paper rolls and TTY ribbons is exhausted, new stock will be available -- at higher prices. Buy your paper rolls and ribbons at the present price of $3.00 and $1.00, respectively. They will be sold on a first come, first served basis. Contact Norman Williams or Jerry Westberg at the TTY Shop in SLC, or Val Platt in Ogden.

TTY paper rolls of white bond paper will be sold at $3.50 and ribbons at $1.50 after the present supply is sold out.

While you think of it, have you bought your 1980 TTY directory? They are available at $1.50 from the same people mentioned above.

Model 15 TTYs are now selling for $134.00 to the deaf and $160.00 to the hearing; supply is limited. Three Model 28 TTYs are available at $300.00 each. These prices do not include the coupler. Couplers can be ordered separately for about $175.00. Contact Dr. Robert Sanderson at his office, 533-5997 (TTY or voice, SLC).

The second APCOM answering service belonging to the UAD has been moved from the Baldwin home in Bountiful to the Westberg home in Salt Lake City. Messages may be left at 266-3036. The first one is in the Platt home to serve the Ogden area. The phone number for this one is 479-5259.

News of Note

* Ronald Hanks, a member of the Governor's Advisory Council, was elected chairman at its March meeting. Ned Wheeler, a chairman for seven of the 12 years he has served on the council, remains on the board as a member. Mr. Hanks is parent of a deaf child.

* At the raffle drawing held at the NWAAD Hall of Fame banquet, the following were winners: 1st place, Myrna Hubert, $100; 2nd place, Lori Baird, $50; 3rd place, J. Thursby, $30; 4th place, Patricia Jo Sims, $15; and 5th place, C. Barney, $5. Additional drawings were held for two promotional Jazz basketballs; Kenneth Salgueiro of California and Mike Roach of Ogden won the balls.

News of Note, continued

* UACD bowlers elected new officers for the 1980-1981 season. They are Jerry Westberg, president; Glenn Ross, vice president; and Norman Williams, secretary. The 1979-1980 bowling season ends on April 8 when playoffs are held; all are welcome to watch them at Bonwood Lanes in Salt Lake City.

* A beautiful hand made ice cream afghan, made by Mrs. Esthma Fort who is confined to a wheelchair and who is legally blind, and a lovely rose quilt with matching pillow shams, hand painted, quilted and tied by Camile Pearson, have been donated for a drawing to be held April 18 with proceeds going toward the purchase of a TTY at St. Benedict's Hospital in Ogden. Tickets are $1.00 each or $5.00 for six. One does not need to be present to win. Those interested in seeing the afghan and quilt, or obtaining tickets, can stop in the Patient Activities Department or contact Melba Holt at the hospital.

* Results of the NWAAD basketball tournament held recently in Ogden were as follows: 1st, Seattle; 2nd, Oakland; 3rd, Idaho; 4th, Sacramento; 5th, Ogden (GSACD), 6th, Portland; 7th, Sportsman Club; 8th, San Francisco, 9th, Vancouver. Ebony forfeited as its team did not show up. Awards were given to Clyde Ketchum of Seattle for the best coach of the tournament; Craig Nicholes of Seattle for the most valuable player; and Ogden (GSACD), team sportsmanship. First team All Stars were Nate Cannon, Ogden; Craig Healy, Oakland; Andy Helm, Seattle; Craig Nicholes, Seattle; James Renshaw, Sacramento. Second team All Stars were Ronald Stern, Oakland; Mike Grammer, Idaho; Donald McCarthy, Vancouver BC; James Renberg, Portland; David Wagner, Seattle.

MYSTERY BOX

DON'T GIVE UP HOPE!

'C. COMMITTEE

paid advertisement

Vibes from the Utah School for the Deaf

* Frank Turk, executive director of the Junior NAD in Washington, DC, will be in Ogden to confer with USD administration officers and faculty. If time permits, he may meet with the students.

* Track and field schedule was not yet established at the time of writing. The season begins at the end of March. Tracksters from the Idaho School for the Deaf will be at USD on April 21 for competitions. Jerry Taylor is the coach of the USD team.

* Winners of the USD spelling bee were Thuc Nguyen, 1st place winner for the second straight year; Julie Levine, 2nd place and Sari Stewart, 3rd place. Thuc, who has had only four years of exposure to the English language, went on to compete in the Ogden School District spelling bee.

* USD faculty voted Don Cochran as citizen for the month of March. The monthly contest is sponsored by the Elementary Club to promote good citizenship among the elementary students. A good citizen is characterized as polite, helpful, kind, honest, patriotic, hardworking whether it be at home, at school or in the community.

* From the 26th to the 28th of March, the Project SKI HI Outreach is sponsoring a workshop on supervision of hearing impaired infants and preschool children. The workshop is to be held at Sherwood Hills near Logan, and credit can be obtained. Contact Skip Reese at USD for more information.

* Two touring theatre groups, the Happy Handfuls from California and the Theatre of Silence from Montana, will be in Utah during April. See April Happenings for exact information on location, date and time.

* * * * *

Deadline for May issue: April 20. Contact your area reporter -- Nellie Sausedo, Cleo Peterson, Mary Sanderson, Jean Nelson, Celia May Baldwin or Dorothy Young -- or the editor, Val Platt, 112 W. 5150 S., Ogden, Ut. 84403 -- TTY 479-5259 if you have news for the Bulletin.

Subscription rate: $3.50 a year. Advertising rates available on request from the editor.