UAD Membership Form

We appreciate your support of the Utah Association for the Deaf, the oldest organization of, by and for deaf and hard of hearing people in Utah. It was established in 1909 at the Utah School for the Deaf in Ogden and has a long record of service in the deaf community in Utah.

By joining UAD, you show your support for the common purpose of advancing the lives of deaf and hard of hearing people. We stand to gain in banding together to improve the quality of life that we share in this state. Whether it is through working with agencies to provide services, or lobbying in the state legislature to get bills passed to enhance the education of our deaf children, the Utah Association for the Deaf lives up to its stated object and purpose of promoting the interests of deaf and hard of hearing people.

It constantly seeks new goals that will continue to add to and enhance the quality of our lives of our lives.
